Major Archeparchy of Ernakulam - Angamaly

Major Archbishop

George Cardinal Alencherry

Metropolitan Vicar

Archbishop Antony Kariyil

Auxiliary Bishop Emeritus

Mar Thomas Chakiath

A BRIEF HISTORY

The Archeparchy of Ernakulam-Angamaly (formerly known as Archdiocese of Ernakulam) occupies a prominent position in the history of the Syro-Malabar Church. It was established as a Vicariate by the Bull "Quae Rei Sacrae" of Pope Leo XIII on 28th July 1896. Mar Aloysius Pazheparambil was appointed as the first Vicar Apostolic, who assumed charge on 5th November 1896.

Under the able guidance of Mar Pazheparambil, the Vicariate began to flourish. City of Ernakulam was chosen to be the location for the Bishop's House and the construction was begun in October 1897 and it was completed and blessed on 24th April 1900. Although he had to begin from the scratches, his indefatigable labours, coupled with the hearty cooperation of the clergy and laity brought the Vicariate within a few years, to a position of eminence. He continued to govern the Vicariate ably and successfully till his death on 9th December 1919.

The progress of the Vicariate both spiritually and materially was accelerated ever since Mar Augustine Kandathil assumed the charge of it on 18 December 1919. Archbishop Kandathil guided the life and work of the archdiocese and of the Syro-Malabar Hierarchy for well over three decades. He not only followed the progressive policies of his illustrious predecessor, but also opened new avenues of apostolate in keeping with the changing times. His accent on charity and piety led to the foundation of many churches, schools, hospitals, homes for the poor and asylums for the aged as well as several Orders of Religious and pious associations.

As the Syro-Malabar Hierarchy was established on 21st December 1923, by the Bull "Romani Pontifices" of Pope Pius XI, Ernakulam was raised to the status of an archdiocese and was made the centre of the Syro-Malabar Church. Its Vicar Apostolic Mar Augustine Kandathil was appointed as the first archbishop.

On 20th July 1956, Mar Joseph Parecattil became the Archbishop of Ernakulam. By the Bull, "Qui in Beati Petri Cathedrae" of Pope Pius XII, Ernakulam was bifurcated and the diocese of Kothamangalam was erected on 29th July 1956. The Dioceses of Thrissur, Thalassery and Kothamangalam became suffragan Dioceses of Ernakulam Archdiocese. Mar Joseph Parecattil was made Cardinal on 28th March 1969 and Mar Sebastian Mankuzhikary was appointed as his auxiliary on 15th November 1969.

The number of churches, monasteries, convents, seminaries, schools, colleges, technical institutions, printing presses, hospitals, homes for retired priests, social centres and various associations and institutes dedicated to intellectual and vocational apostolates that have come into being in this archdiocese during Cardinal Parecattil's tenure of office is truly impressive.

When Cardinal Parecattil retired from his office on 1st April 1984, his Auxiliary Bishop Mar Sebastian Mankuzhikary was appointed Apostolic Administrator of the Archdiocese. Bishop Mankuzhikary had already played a significant role in the all-round progress of the archdiocese from the year 1970 in his capacity as Auxiliary Bishop and as the Vicar General.

Mar Antony Padiyara was appointed as the Archbishop of Ernakulam on 18th May 1985 and he took charge on 3rd July 1985. His term of office as archbishop is also marked by a steady development in all spheres of life and activities of the archdiocese.

His Holiness Pope John Paul II, during his Pastoral Visit in India, presided over a Eucharistic Celebration at H.M.T. Grounds, Kalamassery, whereafter he paid a visit to the St. Mary's Cathedral Basilica, Ernakulam, and spent the night at the Archbishop's House, Ernakulam.

Mar Padiyara was made Cardinal on 29th May 1988. Fr. Jacob Manathodath was nominated as his auxiliary on 6th September 1992. Bishop Jacob, who was also the Vicar General, assisted the Cardinal in the administration of the archdiocese from 1992 to 1997.

A greater landmark in the history of the St. Thomas Christians and especially in the history of the Archdiocese of Ernakulam was on 16th December 1992 when the Syro-Malabar Church was declared a Major Archiepiscopal Church 'Sui Iuris' with the title of Ernakulam-Angamaly, by Pope John Paul II. The Holy See thus recognized the legitimate right of the Syro-Malabar Church. It also took into account the pre-eminence of the Archdiocese of Ernakulam by making it the See of the Major Archbishop of the Syro-Malabar Church. Thereby the Archbishop of Ernakulam-Angamaly is also Major Archbishop of the Syro-Malabar Church. The above mentioned document of the Holy Father also prescribes that the residential See of the Major Archbishop is to be at Ernakulam. By this document the name of the Archdiocese was changed from Ernakulam to Ernakulam-Angamaly. Thus Angamaly, an ancient residential See of the Bishop of St. Thomas Christians and now a municipal town in the Archdiocese of Ernakulam, also got associated with the title of the Major Archbishop. It is also worthy of special mention that it was an illustrious son of the Archdiocese of Ernakulam in the person of Archbishop Abraham Kattumana, who was appointed by Pope John Paul II as the Pontifical Delegate to the Syro-Malabar Church. The Curia of the Major Archiepiscopal Church started functioning in the Archbishop's House which was shifted to Mount St. Thomas, Kakkanad on 27th May 1995.

His Eminence Cardinal and Major Archbishop Antony Padiyara retired from his office on 18th December 1996; and Rev. Dr. Varkey Vithayathil C.Ss.R. was nominated titular Bishop of 'Antinoe' and the Apostolic Administrator of the Archdiocese. He was Consecrated Archbishop by Holy Father Pope John Paul II on 6th January 1997. His Grace Archbishop Varkey Vithayathil assumed charge of the archdiocese as the Apostolic Administrator.

The Auxiliary Bishop Jacob Manathodath was appointed Bishop of the Diocese of Palakkad and took charge there on 1st February 1997. Msgr. Thomas Chakiath was nominated Auxiliary Bishop to the Apostolic Administrator Archbishop Varkey Vithayathil on 17th February 1998. Bishop Chakiath who is also the Vicar General assists the Archbishop in the Administration of the Archdiocese.

On 23rd December 1999 Holy Father Pope John Paul II appointed Mar Varkey Vithayathil as the Major Archbishop of the Syro-Malabar Church and as the Archbishop of Ernakulam-Angamaly. His enthronement as the Major Archbishop took place at St. Mary's Basilica, Ernakulam on 26th January 2000. Fr. Sebastian Adayanthrath was nominated Auxiliary Bishop of Ernakulam-Angamaly by Pope John Paul II on January 03, 2002. Major Archbishop His Beatitude Mar Varkey Cardinal Vithayathil expired on 1st April 2011.

On 26th May 2011 the Syro-Malabar Major Archiepiscopal Synod elected Mar George Alencherry as the father and head of more than 40 lakhs Syro-Malabar faithful living all over the world. His enthronement as the Major Archbishop of the Syro-Malabar Church and as the Archbishop of Ernakulam-Angamaly took place at St. Mary's Cathedral Basilica, Ernakulam on 29th May 2011. His Holiness Pope Benedict XVI nominated Mar George Alencherry a member of the College of Cardinals on 6th January 2012. At the Consistory held on 18th February 2012, he was raised to the dignity of a Cardinal. Mar George Cardinal Alencherry is a member of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, Congregation for the Eastern Churches and the International Council for Catechesis and member of the Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity. His Beatitude participated in the Conclave in March 2013 that elected Pope Francis.

Mar Thomas Chakiath, the Auxiliary Bishop and Protosyncellus, retired from his office on 10th September 2012 as he turned 75. Mar Sebastian Adayanthrath, the syncellus took charge of the office of the Protosyncellus on the same day. Mar Jose Puthenveettil, who has been syncellus since March 2011, was ordained Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese on 21st September 2013.

Due to certain controversies in the Archeparchy, Pope Francis appointed Mar Jacob Manathodath. Bishop of Palghat the Apostolic Administrator Sede Plena for the Archeparchy of Ernakulam-Angamaly on 22nd June 2018. The Apostolic Administration of the Archeparchy was concluded on 27th June 2019.

On 30th August 2019, the Major Archbishop appointed Archbishop Antony Kariyil the Vicar of the Major Archbishop for the Archeparchy of Ernakulam-Angamaly. He was until then the Bishop of the Eparchy of Mandya. On the same day, Bishop Sebastian Adayanthrath was appointed Bishop of the Eparchy of Mandya, and Bishop Jose Puthenveettil Auxiliary Bishop of the Eparchy of Faridabad.

It may be pointed out that the Generalates of the four major religious congregations for men of the Syro-Malabar Church, namely the Carmelites of Mary Immaculate (C.M.I.), the Vincentian Congregation (V.C.), the Little Flower Congregation (C.S.T.), and the Missionary Congregation of the Blessed Sacrament (M.C.B.S.) and the sole Syro-Malabar Provincialate of the Order of Friars Minor Capuchins, and the two Syro-Malabar Vice Provincialates of Franciscan Conventuals and of the Redemptorist Fathers and of the Claretians are situated in the Archdiocese of Ernakulam. A total of thirteen religious congregations for women of the Syro-Malabar Rite have their Generalates in this archdiocese. It is worthy of special mention that nine of these congregations were founded in the archdiocese itself.

The Archdiocese of Ernakulam-Angamaly with its headquarters in the Corporation of Cochin comprises of almost the whole of the district of Ernakulam, parts of the districts of Thrissur, Kottayam and Alapuzha.

Former Prelates

» MAR ALOYSIUS PAZHEPARAMBIL (1847 - 1919)

Born on 25 March 1847 at Pulinkunnu, Aloysius was ordained priest on 4 December 1870. On 11 August 1896 he was appointed titular bishop of Tiumand and first Vicar Apostolic of the newly constituted Vicariate of Ernakulam. In the same year, on 25 October, Mar Aloysius was consecrated bishop at the Papal Seminary, Kandy, by the Most Archbishop L. Zalesky, the Delegate Apostolic. On 5 November 1896 he took charge of the newly erected Vicariate of Ernakulam. Although he had to begin from the scratches, his indefatigable labours, coupled with the hearty co-operation of the clergy and laity brought the Vicariate, within a few years, to a position of eminence. He continued to govern the Vicariate ably and successfully till his death on 9 December 1919. His mortal remains were interred in the sanctuary of the Metropolitan Church, Ernakulam and transferred to the sanctuary of the new Basilica in March 1974.

» MAR AUGUSTINE KANDATHIL (1874 - 1956)

Mar Aloysius Pazheparambil was succeeded as Vicar Apostolic by the late Most Dr. Augustine Kandathil. Born on 25 August 1874 at Chempu, he was ordained priest at the Papal Seminary, Kandy on 21 December 1901. On 29 August 1911, he was appointed titular bishop of Arad and co-adjuctor of Mar Aloysius, with the right of succession and was consecrated on 3 December. On 18 December 1919 he took charge of the Vicariate. On 21 December 1923, he was nominated Archbishop of Ernakulam, when the Syro-Malabar Hierarchy was established by the Apostolic Bull "Romani Pontifices" of Pius XI. His grace received the Pallium on 16 November 1924 at the Cathedral, Ernakulam from His Excellency the late Mgr. Lepicier who had been sent to INDIA as Visitor Apostolic. Archbishop Kandathil made his "Ad limina" visit in the Jubilee Year of 1925. In 1926 the Silver jubilee of his Sacerdotal Ordination and in 1936 that of his Episcopal Consecration were celebrated with great solemnity. Archbishop Kandathil, not only followed the holy and progressive footprints of his illustrious predecessor, but also opened new avenues of apostolate in keeping with the changing times. As a token of special consideration and appreciation the Holy Father conferred upon him the titles of "Assistant at the Pontifical Throne", "Domestic Prelate" and "Roman Count". In 1951 his Sacerdotal Golden Jubilee was celebrated with befitting solemnity.

The illustrious prelate passed away to his eternal reward on 10 January 1956, after having received the last rites from the hands of his auxiliary Rt Dr. Joseph Parecattil. On 12 January his mortal remains were interred in the sanctuary of the Metropolitan Church and thence transferred to the sanctuary of the new Basilica in March 1974.

» MAR JOSEPH CARDINAL PARECATTIL (1912 - 1987)

Mar Joseph Parecattil was born at Kidangoor on 1 April 1912. He did his ecclesiastical studies in the Papal Seminary, Kandy, where he took a licentiate in Philosophy and doctorate in Theology with distinction. He was ordained priest on 24 August 1939. He served as assistant parish priest at Narakkal and N. Parur and as Parish Priest at Chunangamvely. Thereafter he served as the editor of "Sathyadeepam", until he was nominated titular bishop of Arathusa and Bishop Auxiliary to His grace, Most Mar Augustine Kandathil, on 28 October 1953. He was consecrated bishop by His Eminence Eugene Cardinal Tisserent at the Cathedral on 30 November 1953. On the demise of Mar Augustine Kandathil on 10 January 1956, bishop Parecattil was elected Administrator. He was appointed Administrator Apostolic on 27 January 1956 and nominated archbishop on 20 July 1956. His Grace took charge of the archdiocese on 9 January 1957.

He was Appointed Consultor to the Sacred Oriental Congregation in 1961. During the fourth session of the Vatican Council II archbishop Parecattil was appointed member of the International Episcopal Synod. On 20 October 1966 he was elected Vice-Chairman of the Catholic Bishops' Conference of INDIA. On the occasion of the visit of H.E. Maxmilian Cardinal Fürstenberg on 27 February 1968, he was declared Member of the Sacred Oriental Congregation. H.H. Pope Paul VI made him Cardinal in 1969. He was nominated member of the Secretariat for Christian Unity in 1976; was elected Chairman of C.B.C.I. in 1972; was appointed President of the Commission for the Revision of the Code of Oriental Canon Law in 1972; was made Member of the Commission for the Revision of the Code of Latin Canon Law in 1972 and was re-elected President of C.B.C.I. at its Calcutta session 1974. He was appointed member of the Secretariat for Non-Christians in 1974. He was for many years President of the Syro-Malabar Bishop's Conference, in which capacity he was also the Chancellor of the Dharmaram Pontifical Institute for Philosophy and Theology, Bangalore and of the Oriental Institute of Philosophy and Theology, Kottayam. He was the President of the Kerala Catholic Bishops' Council for over six years in which capacity he was also Chancellor of the Pontifical Institute of Philosophy and Theology, Alwaye. He retired from office on 1 April 1984. His Eminence had the singular privilege of participating in the two conclaves which elected Pope John Paul I and John Paul II. His Eminence passed away on 20 February 1987. His mortal remains were interred in the sanctuary of the St. Mary's Cathedral Basilica on 22 February 1987.

» MAJOR ARCHBISHOP ANTONY CARDINAL PADIYARA

(1921-2000)

Antony Cardinal Padiyara was born at Manimala on 11 February 1921. After completing his ecclesiastical studies in St Peter's Seminary, Bangalore and Salem, he was ordained priest on 19 December 1945 for the diocese of Mysore. He served as assistant at Kodivery and as Parish Priest at Kollegal and Ooty. In 1952 he was made Rector of the Minor Seminary, Mysore and in 1954 was appointed Professor at St Peter's Pontifical Seminary, Bangalore.

On 3 July 1955 he was nominated bishop of the newly formed diocese of Ootacamand. On 25 September 1955, he assumed charge of the diocese. He was consecrated bishop on 16 October 1955.

He was promoted archbishop and transferred to the Metropolitan See of Changanacherry, of which he took charge on 15 August 1970. He received the Pallium on 7 August 1970. In 1976 he was elected Vice President of the Catholic Bishops' Conference of INDIA and in 1983 President of the Kerala Catholic Bishops' Council. In 1984 he was elected President of the Syro-Malabar Bishops' Conference. Consequently he was also the Chancellor of the Paurasthya Vidyapitham, Kottayam, and the Dharmaram Pontifical Institute for Philosophy and Theology, Bangalore. On 8 September 1978 His Holiness Pope John Paul I appointed him Apostolic Visitator to the Syro-Malabar Catholics living outside Kerala. The Holy Father Pope John Paul II transferred Mar Padiyara to the Metropolitan See of Ernakulam on 18 May 1985. He took charge on 3 July 1985.

His Holiness Pope John Paul II nominated Mar Padiyara a member of the College of Cardinals on 29 May 1988. At the Consistory on 28 June 1988 he was raised to the dignity of a Cardinal. On 20 October 1988 His Holiness appointed Cardinal Padiyara a member of the Congregation for the Oriental Churches and of the Pontifical Commission for the Revision of the Code of Oriental Canon Law. As a crown to his glory, he has been appointed the first Major Archbishop of Syro-Malabar Church on 16 December 1992. The Holy Father Pope John Paul II accepted the resignation of His Em. Card. Padiyara on 18th December 1996. He spent his retired life at Cardinal Padiyara Nature Cure Centre, Kakkanad. His Eminence passed away on 23rd March 2000 and his mortal remains were interred in the sanctuary of the St. Mary's Cathedral Basilica on 25th March 2000.

Places of Historical Importance in the Archeparchy of Ernakulam-Angamaly

ALANGAD

St. Mary's Church Alangad had witnessed many important events in the history of the Kerala Catholic Church. Alangad is the birth place of Mar Joseph Kariattil, Ph.D., D.D., who was consecrated as the first native Archbishop of Cranganore in 1783 at Lisbon and died in Goa on his way back to Kerala. The mortal remains of Archbishop Kariattil, brought from Goa, were solemnly re-interred at st mary's church Alangad in 1961. A Pahlavi Cross dating back to the early centuries, a remnant of the ancient glory of Alangad, was discovered by the late Msgr. J.C. Panjikaran in 1931. In 1599, Archbishop Dr. Menezes of Goa, who convoked the Synod of Diamper had visited Alangad. There was an 'apprition' of blessed Virgin Mary in 1599 while Archbishop Dr. Menezes at Alangad. In 1653, soon after the Coonen Cross Oath at Mattanchery, 12 priests together "consecrated" a "Bishop" (Mar Thoma I) at Alangad which paved the way to schism. In 1701, Fr. Angelo Francis was consecrated as the vicar apostolic of the vicariate of Verapoly by Mar Simon, a Mesopotamian Bishop. Together with the new Church, a very ancient Church (Estd. AD 1300 and dedicated to Our Lady) is also found here. LOCATION: 7 kilometers west of Aluva, on the way to North Parur.

ALUVA

Aluva has got a place in the global map of the Catholic Church with the erection of St. Joseph's pontifical seminary Mangalapuzha in 1932. St. Joseph's Seminary Mangalapuzha is built in a compound (about 40 acres) bought by Parayil Varkey Tharakan together with the Syrian catholics from Mr. Shetler and later donated to the Archbishop of Goa for the construction of a Major Seminary, for the training of the Syrian Catholic Priests of the Archdiocese of Cranganore in 1865. Aluva is famous because of other ecclesiastical and secular institutions and industries. LOCATION: Aluva is situated 23 Km. north of Ernakulam town, on the way to Trichur.

ANGAMALY

Angamaly is very famous from 5th century onwards which is thickly populated by the Syrian Christians. St George church at Angamaly was established in 1450 AD. St Mary's Jacobite church was erected by Archdeacon George in 1575. Angamaly was chosen as the residence by Mar Abraham, the last Chaldean Archbishop to head the St Thomas Christians. He erected his cathedral church at Angamaly in 1577. It continued to be the Metropolitian residence, until Archbishop Ros, his successor, shifted the same to Cranganore in 1609. Mar Abraham died and was buried here at St Hormis church (his cathedral) in 1597. Fr. Francis Ros was appointed Bishop of St Thomas Christians by Pope Clement VIII in 1595. History records that St Hormis Church was established in 480 A.D. St George' Forane Church at Angamaly attracts thousands of pilgrims every year, especially during the main feast. LOCATION: It is situated 33 km. north of Ernakulam on the way to Trichur.

CHENDAMANGALAM

Chendamangalam was a famous centre of St Thomas Christians and it was the location of Villarvattom royal family which is considered as a 'Christian dynasty'. The first church at Chendamangalam was established in 1075. Jesuit missionaries established the famous Vaippincotta seminary in 1583 for the training of the Syrian clerics which had been destroyed by Tippu Sultan in 1790. The remnants of the famous Seminary of Vaippincotta can be seen in the premises of the ancient Church located here. The present Holy Cross Church was erected by the Jesuits in 1584. The historical remnants are preserved by the archeological department of the Government. Chendamangalam is an attraction for students of History and foreign visitors. LOCATION: 7 Km. north-east of Parur town which is 35 Km. away from Ernakulam.

EDAPPALLY

St. George forane church Edappally was established in A.D. 593 and which is a very famous pilgrim centre of Kerala. It attracts thousands of pilgrims belonging to all castes and creeds, not only during the principal feast (May) but throughout the year. In 1536 Portuguese built Sts. Peter and Paul church which is known at present as 'thekkepally'. It was here the last Archdeacon Mathai was buried in 1706. The first indigenous religious congregation of St Thomas Christians was established at Edappally in 1626. The very famous 'Edappally Padiyola' was written at Edappally in 1632. Edappally was the residence of the Archdeacons for many years and three major gatherings of St Thomas Christians were conducted at Edappally after 'Coonan Cross Oath'. LOCATION: situated 8 Km. north of Ernakulam on the way to Aluva.

ERNAKULAM

There is an ancient church at Ernakulam (Estd. A.D. 1112) dedicated to Our Lady of Ports, which is now the Cathedral Basilica of the Major Archdiocese of Ernakulam–Angamaly. This is the first Basilica in Kerala. It was the capital of the erstwhile Cochin State. In 1896, Ernakulam was made the headquarters of the Vicariate of Ernakulam by the Bull "Quae Rei Sacre" of Pope Leo XIII. The newly built Cathedral was elevated to the status of a Minor Basilica by Pope Paul VI on 20 March 1974. LOCATION: Ernakulam faces the Cochin Harbour.

KANJOOR

There is a very ancient church at Kanjoor dedicated to Our Lady (Estd. A.D. 1001) which is a famous pilgrim centre of St Sebastian in Kerala. It attracts thousands of devotees of St Mary and St

Sebastian, throughout the year. In the beginning of the 19th centuary it was the residence of the administrator of Archdiocese of Kodungalloor. There are some ancient inscriptions, as well as articles of historical value at Kanjoor. A very ancient and historic grave of a Governador is also present here. History records that in 1599, Archbishop Dr. Menezes of Goa visited Kanjoor to study the documents written in Syriac and several other liturgical books. LOCATION: 10 Km. north-east of Aluva.

KOKKAMANGALAM

St. Thomas Church Kokkamangalam is one of the two churches in the Archdiocese, founded by St. Thomas in A.D. 52. Kokkamangalam is situated on the western shore of Vembanad lake. According to tradition, the Apostle Thomas performed a miracle, which brought about the conversion of several people to Christianity. Unfortunately these christians were persecuted and they were forced to migrate to the opposite side of the lake called Pallipuram. However by the end of 19th centaury many St Thomas Christians came back to Kokkamgalam and established a church in 1900. kokkamangalam is counted as one of the seven churches founded by St Thomas and is a famous pilgrim centre of St Thomas. LOCATION: 5 Km. East of Cherthala on the way to

Thannirmukkom and Vechoor.

The presence of a very ancient church dedicated to Our Lady (Estd. A.D. 1381), popularly called 'Korattymuthy', makes Koratty a renowned Marian Pilgrim Centre. Throughout the year thousands of devotees belonging to different caste and creed visit the church from Southern states of India. The Rosary Village constructed adjacent to the church attracts thousands of devotees of Koratty Muthy every day. Fifteen Mysteries of Holy Rosary depicted in the beautifully constructed statues erected in small chapels built around the architecturally designed lawn and the garden can certainly lead us into a deep meditation of the Holy Rosary. A combination of Indian, Roman and Byzantine cultures can be seen in the construction of these chapels. Moreover the prayer 'Hail Mary' is written in fifty languages, both Indian and foreign to create a homely and welcoming atmosphere. LOCATION: 33 Km. north of Ernakulam, on the way to Trichur and a little north west of Koratty railway station.

KOTTEKKAVU (N. PARUR)

St. Thomas church at "Parur-Kottekkavu," one of the seven churches according to tradition, is established by St. Thomas in 52 A.D. It is situated very near to Cranganore where the Apostle landed in India. The ancient church built in 14th century together with very ancient compound wall is preserved at the premises of the new church. A famous St Thomas cross belonging to very early Christian era is preserved in the church. Archbishop Meneze of Goa visited and stayed at Parur in 1599 before and after the Synod of Diamper. It was the resident of Archbishop Francis Ros, first European Archbishop of Syrian Christians from 1609-1624 and he was buried in the sanctuary of the existing old church. LOCATION: 35 Km. north of Ernakulam, and 15 Km. west of Aluva.

MALAYATTOOR KURISUMUDI (INTERNATIONAL SHRINE)

Many parts of Kerala had the privilege of being trodden by the Holy Apostle St. Thomas and there are many shrines dedicated to him. The most notable of these shrines in Kerala is Malayattoor Kurisumudi near Kalady, the birth place of Sankara charya, the great Hindu Philosopher. Lakhs of pilgrims of all castes and creeds, even from outside India visit Kurisumudi throughout the year, especially during the summer season. The chief festival is on the first Sunday after Easter. It is traditionally believed that St. Thomas used to make the sign of the Cross on the rock, kiss it and pray at Kurisumudi and later on, a miraculous golden cross appeared at that particular spot. The pilgrims going up to Kurisumudi ceaselessly call out the Saint's name, singing "Ponnum Kurisu Muthappo, Ponmala Kayattom", thus giving testimony to their deep faith in him. This Shrine was elevated to the status of an Archdiocesan Shrine by His Grace Archbishop Mar Varkey Vithayathil on 4th Sept. in 1998. Vatican erected Malayattoor Kurisumudi as an International Shrine and it was officially announced by H.E. Cardinal Varkey Vithayathil on 24th April 2004. There is also a very ancient Church in the name of St. Thomas (Estd. A.D. 900) at Malayattoor on the bank of river Periyar and it is now regarded as the parish Church. LOCATION: About 15 Km. north east of Angamaly.

PALLIPPURAM

There is a very ancient Church dedicated to Our Lady of Assumption, which is said to be established in 52 AD. It is traditionally believed that the cross which St. Thomas erected at Kokkamangalam, not far from here, happened to be thrown away into the Vembanad Lake by fanatics. But the cross safely floated over the surface of the lake and reached "Mattel" a small island, adjacent to Pallipuram. The miraculously found cross was solemnly taken by the people and a small Church was built to commemorate the event. In later years the cross was taken over to Pallippuram Church and it is preserved there today. At Pallippuram, there was a seminary built for the training of the Syrian clerics, the remnants of which can be seen even today. Some of the ancient paintings of Our Lady's Assumption are of great attraction to visitors of this place. LOCATION: About 13 Km. north of Cherthala on the way to Arukutty. Pallippuram is on the western shore of Vembanad, opposite to Vaikom.

PUTHENPALLY

At the premise of St George church Puthenpally, the Spanish Carmelites conducted a Seminary from 1866 to 1932 for the formation of Syrian and Latin clerics. In 1932, the seminary was shifted to Mangalapuzha. The remnants of the old seminary can be seen even today at Puthenpally. LOCATION: situated between North Parur and Varapuzha.

UDAYAMPEROOR (DIAMPER)

The first church at Udayamperoor was established in A.D. 510 and the present old church is believed to be founded by Villarvoattam royal family in the 12th centuary. The very famous and historic Synod of Diamper convoked by Dom Menezes, Archbishop of Goa, was held in 1599 at Diamper church with 105 priests and 660 lay leaders for 7 days attended in 7 sessions. Prior to the Synod, Archbishop Menezes ordained priests at Udayamperoor. There are number of granite inscriptions preserved on the walls of the church including an epitaph of Thoma raja of villarvattom who died in 1502 and buried in that church. Thoma raja is considered as the last king of villarvattom royal family. The historical granite cross, where 4 priests can concelebrate holy mass is a monument of great attraction. LOCATION: about 16 Km. to the south Ernakulam on the way to Kottayam.

VECHOOR

The first church at Vechoor was established in Estd. 1463 dedicated to Our Lady. Vechoor is also called Kuda Vechoor, and is located on the banks of Vembanadu Lake. At Vechoor Blessed Virgin Mary is popularly called 'Vechoor Muthiamma'. The church is also a famous pilgrim centre. The feast falls on 8th September and thousands of pilgrims flock there from all parts of Kerala. A picture of Our Lady, which is believed to be a replica of the one painted by St. Luke, is kept here. LOCATION: Situated 45 Km. South of Ernakulam on the way to Kottayam through the Eastern Coast of Vembanad.
